The classic idea of a wonderland is pure, beautiful snow that is soft, delicate, and luxurious. Bright white flakes and gentle snowfall characterize this idea of a winter wonderland. Winter can be a great time to enjoy cold weather fun, such as ice skating and winter activities. A snowball fight, winter sports, and other outdoor adventures characterize an active wonderland.

A true winter wonderland theme wedding will undoubtedly take place at one of the Icelandic Glaciers or in the Mountain resort beneath the glacier Langjokull the second biggest in Europe.

The drive goes into the countryside to Thingvellir, the site of the original Althing, the actual founding place of the oldest democratic parliament in the world. This area is noted for its spectacular lava formations and being the only place in the world where you can actually see the tectonic plates drift apart. Today Thingvellir is a national park by many considered the most important one where the protected area will always be the property of the Icelandic nation. Walk down the main rift. Research has made it clear that Thingvellir is a natural wonder on an international scale, with the geologic history and the bios stem of Lake Thingvallavatn forming a unique entity. The faults and fissures of the area make evident the rifting of the earth's crust and the ecosystem of Lake Thingvallavatn is a perfect example of species evolution in nature. The Convention concerning the Protection of the World Cultural and Natural Heritage, an international agreement adopted by the General Conference of UNESCO in 1972, was founded on the premise that certain places on Earth are of outstanding universal value and as such should form part of the common heritage of humankind.

We now proceed to Geysir, the “geyser” which gave its name to all other erupting hot springs. You will see one of the most active geysers in the area, Strokkur, spouting up to 90 feet into the air.

From there you will go to one of the most impressive waterfalls in Europe, Gullfoss (Golden Waterfall). Here you will see thousands of tons of icy water thunder majestically down in a double-fall into a deep gorge from the glacier Langjökull.
